

Modi 'sits pretty' as people are in 'distress', says Rahul

Gorakhpur/Khaililabad

Making a strong pitch for farm loan waiver on the second day of his yatra in Uttar Pradesh, Rahul Gandhi on Wednesday accused Narendra Modi of "sitting pretty" when people were in "distress" and attacked him for his frequent foreign tours, saying he needs to focus on Indians as he was their Prime Minister.

The Congress vice president also took a jibe at the present system, when he said while people like industrialist Vijay Malya, who run away without paying back bank loans worth thousands of crores of rupees were called "defaulters", farmers were dubbed as "thieves" for taking away cots.

He also asked the Modi government to run a dispensation that is for the poor and look into the plight of farmers who are "crying".

"Janata trust hai, Modiji mast hain. Janata ro rahi hai, kisan ro raha hai, aur Modiji mast hain" ("The public is in distress, but Modiji is sitting pretty. The people, the farmers are crying, but Modiji is sitting pretty," he said addressing a "khaat sabha" of farmers in Khaililabad.

Targeting Modi over his frequent foreign jaunts, Rahul said, "Modiji travels to England, sometimes he travels to China, Japan, sometimes to meet Obama. I want to remind him that he is the Prime Minister of India and not of America. He should come here and his focus should be the farmers."

He claimed that Prime Minister Narendra Modi waived loans of Rs 1.10 lakh crore of "big industrialists and rich people" in the past two years, but forgot the plight of farmers who are carrying the burden of the entire country.

"We want to tell Modiji that if you want to run a 'suit boot sarkar', you can do so. You are the Prime Minister and we can't stop you. You should run a government for the poor. If you are waiving debts of big industrialists, you need to waive the debt of poor farmers too.

"You should come to the aid of poor and weak people. Our farmers who are dying, are being oppressed and suppressed, you should help them too... Don't forget the farmer, because the farmer is crying, big industrialists are not," he told farmers in Khaililabad as also Gorakhpur.

Attacking the BJP, he said, while Congress' opponents see farmers as poor people he felt that they are the "real power" of India.

He said there were numerous reports from states that farmers were committing suicide due to scarcity of water, fertiliser, indebtedness, poor MSP for their produce and lack of electricity.

Seeking to strengthen the party's base in Uttar Pradesh ahead of next year's Assembly election, Gandhi kicked off a month-long 'mahayatra' during which he would traverse 2,500 kms listening to the problems faced by farmers and highlighting their plight.-PTI

BJP protests against Azam's dig at Bhim Rao Ambedkar

Lucknow: BJP on Wednesday held protest here against controversial minister Azam Khan for his "objectionable" statement against Bhim Rao Ambedkar dubbing the Constitution maker as someone who grabs land. In his address at the inauguration of Haj House in Ghaziabad on Monday, Khan without naming Ambedkar had said, "All across Uttar Pradesh, there are statues of a person whose finger seems to say that not only does it own the plot of land on which it is standing, but also the plot towards which it is pointing its finger."

"The BJP held protests in the state capital and the similar protests were also staged across the state," Uttar Pradesh BJP President Keshav Prasad Maurya said. A BJP delegation led by Maurya handed over a memorandum to Governor Ram Naik at Rajbhawan demanding Khan's dismissal from the cabinet.-PTI

AAP leader Ashutosh to meet NCW over his blog comments

New Delhi: Aam Admi Party leader Ashutosh will meet NCW chairperson Lalitha Kumaramangalam today after he was summoned for his controversial blog defending sacked party minister Sandeep Kumar over an "objectionable CD".

Ashutosh tweeted on Wednesday, "I have decided to appear before NCW tomorrow as I have been asked by the panel, to present my views (sic)." He will visit the National Commission for Women of office at 11:30 am tomorrow. NCW summoned Ashutosh for his blog on NDTV website titled, "The Sex Was Consensual, Private Act. Why AAP Punished Its Man." In the blog Ashutosh, referring to Sandeep Kumar, asked, "What wrong has the man done?"

He wrote, "This video encompasses pictures of a man and woman indulging in a sexual act. The video clearly establishes that both individuals knew each other and consented to sex in a private space away from the public glare." "...The question then is that if two consenting adults are physically involved with each other, is it a crime?" -PTI

Chandigarh

Cricketer-turned-politician Navjot Singh Sidhu will formally announce a new political front 'Awaaz-e-Punjab' here on Thursday.

The former Rajya Sabha member had on September 2 floated the new political front online. It will contest the Punjab assembly elections, slated for early next year.

Other members of the new front include former Indian hockey team captain Pargat Singh, a legislator of Punjab's ruling Shiromani Akali Dal, and two independent legislators, Balwinder Singh Bains and Simarjeet Singh Singh and Bains brothers," Simarjeet Bains said here on Wednesday. With the formal launch of the new political outfit, Sidhu is likely to put an end to all speculation of his joining the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP).

Pargat Singh was last month suspended from the Akali Dal for 'anti-party' activities. Sidhu had resigned from the Rajya Sabha on July 18, fuelling speculation that he may join the AAP.

The Bains brothers, who had fallen out with the Akali Dal top leadership three years ago, have significant influence in Ludhiana district. Elections to 117 assembly seats are likely to be held in January or early February next year.-IANS

Money laundering: HP BJP seeks Virbhadra's resignation

Shimla: Himachal Pradesh BJP on Wednesday sought the resignation of Chief Minister Virbhadra Singh and accused the Congress high command of shielding him in the money laundering case. This comes a day after the Enforcement Directorate filed the first charge sheet in the case involving the role of arrested LIC agent Anand Chauhan.

"Virbhadra Singh should have resigned on moral grounds after the CBI raids and attachment of property by ED but he did not see the grace but after filing of charge sheet against Anand Chauhan, the Congress high command should sack him," chief spokesman of the party

Rajiv Bindal said.

"The Congress party is plagued with political bankruptcy at the Centre and in the state. It is evident that the party high command is conniving with the chief minister and neither seeking his resignation nor sacking him," he told mediapersons here. Bindal said that Anand Chauhan was only a "commission agent" of LIC where as Virbhadra Singh and his wife were the main accused and as such he should immediately resign after filing of charge sheet.

He also chided the Congress high command for turning a "blind eye" towards the "misdeeds" of the senior party leader.-PTI

Dalit thrashing: Guj CID files chargesheet; arrests 4 cops

Ahmedabad

The Gujarat CID on Wednesday filed its chargesheet against 34 persons and three minors, including four police personnel, in the Dalit flogging incident at Una town of Gir-Somnath district in the state. The chargesheet was filed this afternoon before Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate of Una taluka court A U Jujaru. Just before filing the chargesheet, the CID officials arrested four police personnel attached with Una police station on charges of dereliction of duty and helping the accused by forging documents.

The apprehended cops were also shown as accused in the chargesheet.

The police personnel include Una police inspector Nirmalsinh Jhala, Police Sub Inspector (PSI) Narendra Pandey, Head Constable Kanji Chudasama and woman Assistant Sub Inspector (ASD) Kanchanben Parmar. Except Pandey, all the three are under suspension. Some of the key accused, arrested in the initial stages of investigation and against whom chargesheet was filed on Wednesday include Pramodgiri Goswami, Ramesh Jadav, Balwant Goswami, Rakesh Joshi and Nagji Vaniya.

These 34 accused have been charged under various sections of IPC, such as 307 (attempt to murder), 397 (robbery), 365 (kidnapping), 355 (assault to dishonor a person), 342 (wrongful confinement), 147 (rioting), 324 (causing hurt by weapon) and 120-B (criminal conspiracy) among others.

They were also charged under section 3(1)(e),(r),(s),(u), 3(2)(5a), 3(1)(d) of Prevention of Atrocities Act. Besides, they were also charged under section 66 A and 66 B of the Information and Technology Act for allegedly making and circulating the clip of the incident.

Apart from the 34 chargesheeted in the Una court on Wednesday, CID also charged three minors, as they were also apprehended during the probe.

CID has filed a separate chargesheet against these minors in the Juvenile Justice Board at Junagadh.

In the chargesheet, CID has alleged that the four cops "misused" their position by not acting against the perpetrators. It is alleged that though four Dalits were thrashed for almost 4-5 hours by self-proclaimed cow vigilantes, the accused cops did nothing to stop the crime.-PTI

Russians in Goa to vote for elections in their country

Panaji

Several hundred Russians living in Goa would cast their votes from the state in the elections to their country's lower house of Parliament, Duma, on September 15. The office of Vikram Varma, legal counsel of the Russian consulate in Mumbai, at Porvorim village in Goa would turn into a polling station. This is the second time that Russia would be allowing voting from a venue outside a consulate or the embassy in India. The first such polling was witnessed in Goa on December 4, 2011, when nearly 300 Russian voters cast vote, Varma told PTI. The polling would be held under the observation of officials from the Russian consulate in Mumbai who would be bringing the ballot boxes. Goa is a popular holiday destination for Russians with 65,000 to 70,000 visitors from the country arriving in the last tourist season.

"We are expecting nearly two hundred thousand Russians to visit Goa this year," Varma said.

Elections are being held for 450 seats of Duma. The voting in Russia is scheduled for September 18, but in Goa the voting would be held earlier as the ballot boxes are to be transferred to Mumbai and sent to Russia, he said. According to him, there is a floating population of nearly one thousand Russians in Goa who are eligible to vote.

Russian consulate has also written to the Goa Chief Minister seeking his help in facilitating the voting.

"The foundation of a healthy democracy rests in enabling citizens to cast their vote. Keeping in mind this global principle as well as the strong friendship between the two nations, this would be the second time the Government of Goa has graciously assisted the Russian Government to enable Russians in Goa to cast their vote," Varma said.
